

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MARIA ISABEL LOPEZ,

Defendant.

4:19-CR-3069

TENTATIVE FINDINGS

The Court has received the presentence investigation report in this case. The defendant has not objected to the report or moved for a variance, but has filed a sentencing memorandum (filing 37).

IT IS ORDERED:

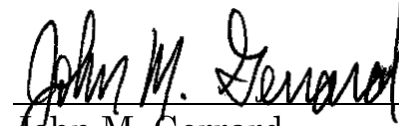

1. The Court will consult and follow the Federal Sentencing Guidelines to the extent permitted and required by United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005) and subsequent cases. In this regard, the Court gives notice that, unless otherwise ordered, it will:
 - (a) give the advisory Guidelines respectful consideration within the context of each individual case and will filter the Guidelines' advice through the 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) factors, but will not afford the Guidelines any particular or "substantial" weight;
 - (b) resolve all factual disputes relevant to sentencing by the greater weight of the evidence and without the aid of a jury;

- (c) impose upon the United States the burden of proof on all Guidelines enhancements;
 - (d) impose upon the defendant the burden of proof on all Guidelines mitigators;
 - (e) depart from the advisory Guidelines, if appropriate, using pre-Booker departure theory; and
 - (f) in cases where a departure using pre-Booker departure theory is not warranted, deviate or vary from the Guidelines when there is a principled reason justifying a sentence different than that called for by application of the advisory Guidelines, again without affording the Guidelines any particular or "substantial" weight.
2. The defendant filed a sentencing memorandum arguing that under 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) she should not be sentenced to imprisonment. See filing 37. According to the presentence investigation report, the guideline sentence provides for a range of 6 to 12 months incarceration which can be satisfied through (1) imprisonment, (2) imprisonment and supervised release that substitutes community confinement or home detention, provided at least one month is satisfied by imprisonment, or (3) probation that includes a condition or combination of conditions that substitute intermittent confinement, community confinement or home detention for imprisonment. See U.S.S.G. § 5C1.1\(c\). The Court is aware of all of its options in fashioning a sentence, and will resolve this issue at the time of sentencing.

3. Except to the extent, if any, that the Court has sustained an objection, granted a motion, or reserved an issue for later resolution in the preceding paragraph, the parties are notified that the Court's tentative findings are that the presentence report is correct in all respects.
4. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, that party shall, as soon as possible (but in any event no later than three (3) business days before sentencing) file with the Court and serve upon opposing counsel an objection challenging these tentative findings, supported by a brief as to the law and such evidentiary materials as are required, giving due regard to the local rules of practice governing the submission of evidentiary materials. If an evidentiary hearing is requested, such filings should include a statement describing why a hearing is necessary and how long such a hearing would take.
5. Absent timely submission of the information required by the preceding paragraph, the Court's tentative findings may become final and the presentence report may be relied upon by the Court without more.
6. Unless otherwise ordered, any objection challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

Dated this 26th day of May, 2020.
